

REFERENCE LETTER for Xingyu Song

To whom it may concern,

It is my great honor to recommend Xingyu Song who worked as an intern within my team from 08 July 2021 to 02 August 2021. I was greatly impressed by her ability to learn working skills initiatively and excellent teamwork spirit during the whole internship.

During her 1-month internship, she has performed well in preparing meeting minutes, drafting numerical analysis and financial model simulation as well as researching industrial practice and international tax practice. I really appreciate her active participation in the tax advisory projects.

Beyond that, Xingyu is a person with inclusive and communication abilities. She adapts herself to our company's intensive working atmosphere quickly and collaborates with other colleagues well. Besides, her performance is recognized by colleagues as she can always finish work assigned in high quality and proactively requests the assignment of other tasks.

Her contribution to our company is valuable and I wish Xingyu every success in her life and career.

Your sincerely,

Ally Liu
